

E. EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION OF RESOURCES

Contractual arrangements with early intervention providers ensure that early intervention services are provided to eligible children when there is no other federal, state, private, or local source of payment. These monies expand and provide services that are otherwise unavailable.

Early intervention services, specialized services and/or discretionary projects are funded through the state of Missouri's rules for purchasing. These rules involve adequate notification to the public that services are sought and submission procedures.